

Mrs. Silva's reception on Tuesday and Mrs. Krouse's reception on Saturday were the principal social events of the week, though the ball at the university, and several smaller parties were also enjoyable affairs. Mrs. Nelson's "menagerie party" was a novelty.

Society is much interested in the prospective play, "Leda Astray," to be given at the Salt Lake theatre and the opera, "Dress Rehearsal," at the Lyceum, both by home talent. Mrs. W. P. Lynn will give a large reception on Thursday.

The "menagerie party" given by Mrs. W. A. Nelson on Wednesday evening, was as novel in some of its features as pleasant in all.

The guests found awaiting them some apparently blank cards, but on closer examination they found that on one side of the card was the cleverly drawn and painted picture of an animal. Those who were fortunate enough to draw the picture of a lion found that they were assigned to the royal table, but those who drew donkeys were assigned to places at the booby table, which was marked by a larger card whereon another donkey posed.

The winners at high five were Mrs. Tracy, who carried off the first prize, a Rockwood vase, and Mrs. Hobbs the second, a box of perfumery. Major Silva won the first prize for gentlemen, a box of cigars, and Dr. Hughes won the second.

A portion of the evening was devoted to music. Mrs. Silva sang in her charming way Schubert's "Serenade." Mrs. Odessa sang "Let Me Dream," and together they rendered the duet "Holy Mother." Professor Krouse played with characteristic brilliancy.

The invited guests were Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Hobbs, Mr. and Mrs. J. Judson, Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Vincent, Mr. and Mrs. Russell L. Tracy, Mr. and Mrs. William Wightman, Captain and Mrs. T. C. Bailey, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Brinker, Dr. and Mrs. J. Beattie, Miss Nellie Beattie, Dr. and Mrs. T. B. Beatty, Professor and Mrs. H. S. Krouse, Dr. and Mrs. Lyons, Mr. and Mrs. George S. Gannett, Mr. and Mrs. Thomson, Miss Grace Thomson, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Gannett, Major and Mrs. Silva, Mrs. Southworth, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Druehl, Miss Druehl, Mr. and Mrs. Kinkadee, Mr. and Mrs. Theobald, Dr. and Mrs. S. Hughes, Dr. and Mrs. P. B. McMurphy, Mr. and Mrs. P. B. McGurran, Dr. and Mrs. McMurran, Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Robert, Mr. and Mrs. Odessa, of Park City, Mr. Robert Wallace and Mr. Daniel.

Mrs. C. H. Brink gave a high five yesterday afternoon, which was one of the pleasantest affairs of the week. The prizes were three cut glass vases varying in size according to the order of the prizes. Mrs. Weigel won the first prize, Miss Hanauer the second, and Mrs. John N. Sharp the third. The prizes and tallies were lovely hand-painted butterfies. Miss Jessie Conrad assisted Mrs. Brink.

There were present Mrs. J. P. Bache, Mrs. Joseph Brinker, Mrs. Thomas Pearson, Mrs. J. T. Donnellan, Mrs. E. McGurran, Mrs. Rose, Mrs. DeGolyer, Mrs. S. Weigel, Mrs. L. Archer, Mrs. Frank Hester, Mrs. Odessa, Mrs. C. H. Brink, Mrs. Lyons, Mrs. Wells, Mrs. Sadler, Mrs. Beman, Miss Preston, Miss Hanauer, Miss Ida Hanauer, Miss Fletcher.

er, Dr. Miles, Miss Evans and Miss Park.

One of the chief functions of the week was the large reception given by Mrs. H. S. Krouse yesterday afternoon.

The lady's talent as an artist was shown by the exquisite arrangement of floral decorations in her pretty home. She received unassisted.

Mrs. Silva, Miss Rose Marie Morris and Miss Cumorah Smith entertained the guests with musical selections, and Mrs. W. A. Nelson presided in the dining room where she was assisted by Miss Emilie Katz, Miss Edna Sherman, Miss Nellie Beattie, Miss Evelyn Webber and Miss Julia Dean. Miss Lena Welby was an able assistant in the role of "doorkeeper."

The invited guests were: Mrs. McCormick, Mrs. Maria G. Hughes, Mrs. McVicker, Mrs. Markland, Mrs. Jennings, Miss Geneva Jennings, Mrs. Seymour, Mrs. J. C. Taylor, Mrs. Zeng, Mrs. Valentine, Miss Valentine, Mrs. Gehhart, Mrs. E. M. Miller, Mrs. Niles, Mrs. Osmond, Mrs. Goldberg, Miss Goldberg, Mrs. Royle, Miss Royle, Mrs. Salisbury, Mrs. Daggett, Mrs. Pickard, Mrs. Fenton, Mrs. Chase, Mrs. J. W. Clawson, Mrs. Denney, Mrs. Judd, Mrs. H. H. Patterson, Mrs. Oglesby, Mrs. Lippman, Mrs. Waters, Mrs. S. Hughes, Mrs. Margaret W. Wicher, Mrs. Joseph Jennings, Mrs. Priscilla Jennings, Mrs. Conklin, Miss A. Conklin, Miss H. Conklin, Mrs. Vincent, Mrs. Charles Zamo, Mrs. John Zamo, Mrs. Nelson, Mrs. Thomas Bailey, Mrs. H. P. Henderson, Mrs. Kinkadee, Mrs. A. Brown, Mrs. Gilbert Ploutz, Madame Proust, Mrs. Mason, Mrs. Silva, Mrs. Southworth, Mrs. Simmons, Miss Simmons, Mrs. Pearson, Mrs. Simmond, Mrs. Hanauer, Misses Hanauer, Mrs. F. Simons, Mrs. Plummer, Mrs. J. Lippman, Mrs. Phillips, Misses Phillips, Miss Shearman, Miss Edna Shearman, Mrs. Siegal, Mrs. Kenyon, Mrs. Dart, Mrs. Veimer, Mrs. F. S. Richards, Mrs. Dewey, Mrs. Richards, Mrs. Joseph Richards, Mrs. Donnellan, Miss Donnellan, Mrs. J. Tilton Donnellan, Mrs. Charles Reed, Mrs. Frank Jennings, Mrs. Florence Clawson, Mrs. T. J. Almy, Miss Blanche Kimball, Mrs. Baumgarten, Mrs. Webber, Misses Webber, Mrs. J. Spencer, Mrs. R. A. Whitney, Mrs. Standart, Mrs. Glen Miller, Mrs. Luce, Miss Luce, Mrs. L. Cohn, Miss Cohn, Mrs. A. Cohn, Mrs. Skewes, Mrs. Morton, Mrs. Dean, Mrs. Ranshoff, Mrs. Standrod, Mrs. Woodrow, Mrs. A. C. Ewing, Mrs. A. Campbell, Mrs. Egbert Roberts, Mrs. Grant, Mrs. Edwin Kimball, Misses Hartwell, Mrs. O. K. Lewis, Mrs. F. E. McGurran, Mrs. Hinman, Mrs. C. Reed, Mrs. H. Rivers, Mrs. P. Dickart, Mrs. Pinkerton, Miss Kissick, Mrs. Katz, Miss Katz, Mrs. J. Beattie, Miss Nellie Beattie, Mrs. S. Walker, Misses Walker, Mrs. Bishop, Miss Bishop, Mrs. Belle Gennell, Miss Anderson, Mrs. E. Smith, Mrs. Morris, Mrs. Samuels, Mrs. S. Bamberger, Miss Maas, Mrs. J. Bamberger, Mrs. Brinker, Mrs. W. Rivers, Mrs. Shelp, Mrs. Welby, Mrs. Ritter, Mrs. Emanuel Kahn, Miss May, Misses Cohen, Mrs. Benedict, Miss Benedict, Mrs. Horn, Mrs. Sheets, Mrs. Seabolt, Mrs. Hamilton, Mrs. Miner, Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Daniels, Mrs. Lett, Mrs. Sinclair, Mrs. Hanscom, Mrs. McCallum, Mrs. Burrows, Miss Burrows, Mrs. Winnie Kimball, Miss Smith, Miss S. Cohn, Miss R. Morris, Miss Julia Dean, Miss Welby.

Predictions are not always safe, but wagers on the success of the performance of the "Dress Rehearsal" on Saturday next will be made at heavy odds by those who witnessed the rehearsal of that opera at the Lyceum theatre yesterday morning.

There is not a failure among the twenty-seven young ladies participating in the Young Ladies' Aid society, under whose auspices the opera will be given, whose charitable work is too well known to require comment. Patiently, unselfishly and in the spirit long ago enjoined upon the sincerely benevolent, "Let not thy right hand know what thy left hand doeth," these young women have worked for and among the poor of the city.

It has been no easy task to persuade them that duty called them to the trying task of amateur acting, but once having undertaken it, they have not "looked back."

Honor to the Young Ladies' Aid society and success to its every effort!

A "Pantechinician" is what the young ladies of the Seventh, Thirteenth, Fourteenth and Fifteenth wards propose to give at the Fourteenth ward Assembly hall on Friday evening. It includes vocal and instrumental music, recitations, readings, refreshments and raffles. A variety of entertainment, as well as novelties, is promised.

Tomorrow and Tuesday evenings "Leda Astray" will be presented at the Salt Lake theatre by home talent. A portion of the proceeds will be donated to the Pioneer library, the remainder to be the reward of the painstaking efforts of Miss Jennie Long, who has charge of the affair and who will have a leading role. The Portland Oregonian said of her performance of Armande: "All are convinced that Miss Long's first appearance on the stage as an amateur shows her to have great talents. If she gives her attention to the drama the writer believes she has within her the capability of dramatic art, and the fire and emotion of a Charlotte Cushman. She should aim high and prepare to make the great sacrifices required of the noble women who grace the real, legitimate profession."

More than two hundred of the well known ladies of this city and Ogden received invitations to a reception given by Mrs. Silva in honor of her mother, Mrs. Southworth, and there were few or no regrets. Accordingly the drawing room of the pretty home was filled from 2 to 6 o'clock on Tuesday afternoon.

Smiles and yellow chrysanthemums were arranged with artistic effect in the hall and rooms. In the upper hall Miss Olson's orchestra was stationed and played charmingly at intervals during the afternoon.

Mrs. Almy presided at the coffee urn and refreshments were served by Miss Donnellan, Miss Earls and Miss Edna Earls.

Mrs. Silva was gown in a pretty combination of black satin, pink satin and jet.

Mrs. Southworth wore an elegant gown of black brocaded silk.

Mrs. Almy, silver gray silk, with trimmings of velvet of the same shade. Miss Donnellan, olive green silk skirt and bodice of pink crepe.

Miss Earls, light blue crepe, sleeves and trimmings of striped silk. Miss Edna Earls, pink striped silk.

On Tuesday evening Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Berton celebrated their crystal wedding by a card party at their home on Fifth East street. Their guests thoroughly enjoyed the game of "Desperation," in which Mrs. Frank Knox and Mr. C. H. Brink won first prizes, Mrs. L. A. Berton and Mr. Wright the consolation prizes, and Mr. S. J. Kenyon contented himself with the booby.

The refreshments were dainty, and nothing was lacking to make the party as enjoyable as the less formal affairs are almost certain to be.

Mr. and Mrs. Archer received many beautiful gifts of cut glass.

Among their guests were Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Pearson, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Knox, Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Adams, Mr. and Mrs. R. Pettigill, Mr. and Mrs. Egbert Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brink, Mr. and Mrs. George S. Gannett, Mrs. Alice Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Donnellan, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Bishop, Mr. and Mrs. John Luck, Mr. and Mrs. L. S. De Golyer, Mr. and Mrs. John Barker, Mr. and Mrs. J. Judson, Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Vincent, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Benton, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Earls, Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Kenyon, Dr. and Mrs. Arthur Burrows, Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Stephens, Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Fenton, Major and Mrs. Bird, Major and Mrs. Silva, Mrs. Southworth, Mr. and Mrs. Shelp, Mrs. A. Potter, Miss Pettigill, Miss Lillie Gwyn, Miss Lamson, Miss Hyatt, Miss Eberhard, Miss Burrows, Mr. E. Wright, Mr. Charles M. Hawley, Mr. Albert Taylor and Mr. A. C. Potter.

Thanksgiving Day was not celebrated anywhere in the city with more genuine pleasure to entertainers and entertained than at Rowland hall. Bishop and Mrs. Leonard, Rev. and Mrs. A. E. Hall, Miss Jennie Long and Rev. L. B. Ridgley were the guests of the teachers and pupils at dinner, which meal was prepared and served in New England style.

The chief enjoyment was derived from the rendition of Howell's farce, "The Mouse Trap." The teachers played their various roles with an abandon that charmed their audience. Miss Daggett as Mrs. Somers, Miss Howe as Mrs. Campbell, Miss Colburne as Mrs. Roberts, Miss Kinkadee as Mrs. Curwen, Miss Voseberg as Mrs. Miller, Miss Yardley as Mrs. Bemis, and Miss Dashiell as June were all excellent. The stage furnishings were tasteful.

At the close of the performance the audience dispersed, the older portion, which included some of the most prominent citizens, yielding the gymnasium to the younger, who enjoyed dancing till midnight.

More "New England refreshments" were served during the evening and the cider and popcorn balls furnished no inconsiderable part of the day's pleasure.

Mrs. and Miss McNutt, of Michigan, are the guests of Mrs. S. F. Walker.

The entertainment to be given soon for the benefit of St. Ann's orphanage promises to be one of the most sumptuous in recent years ever held in the city. The young ladies of the Catholic church will have charge of it, and their popularity as well as the claim of the cause they represent "sweet charity," will insure success.

Mrs. McElroy, mother of Mr. W. P. McElroy, has gone to Carthage, Mo., to spend the winter.

Mrs. W. P. Lynn has issued invitations for a reception on Thursday.

Mrs. and Miss Kendall visited their cousin, Marshall Brigham, last week. The ladies were en route from Honolulu to their home in Massachusetts.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Bowman gave an elegant dinner party on Thanksgiving Day.

The Sunshine club met with Miss Mae Taylor last evening. Heretofore the club has met on afternoons and the sterner sex was well represented, except on rare occasions when an evening party was given. The young ladies have relented, however, and last evening admitted a few gentlemen members. Hereafter there will be no limitations as to sex in the club.

Mrs. Vollmer has almost entirely recovered from her severe illness and expects to return from Denver this week.

About twenty young ladies of the coterie of buds will give a dancing party at Younger's during the holidays.

Miss Margaret Read and Mr. Joseph Platt were married at the Templeton Wednesday afternoon and that evening a reception was tendered them by the bride's cousins, Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Arnold, Jr., at their home, 108 Third street. Ninety-five guests, chiefly relatives of the contracting parties, were present to enjoy the wedding feast, and to present the happy couple a substantial token of their regard in the form of a bridal gift.

Both the young people are esteemed by a large circle of friends. They will be at home at 142 Third East street.

ance of the "Dress Rehearsal" on Saturday next will be made at heavy odds by those who witnessed the rehearsal of that opera at the Lyceum theatre yesterday morning.

There is not a failure among the twenty-seven young ladies participating in the Young Ladies' Aid society, under whose auspices the opera will be given, whose charitable work is too well known to require comment. Patiently, unselfishly and in the spirit long ago enjoined upon the sincerely benevolent, "Let not thy right hand know what thy left hand doeth," these young women have worked for and among the poor of the city.

It has been no easy task to persuade them that duty called them to the trying task of amateur acting, but once having undertaken it, they have not "looked back."

Honor to the Young Ladies' Aid society and success to its every effort!

A "Pantechinician" is what the young ladies of the Seventh, Thirteenth, Fourteenth and Fifteenth wards propose to give at the Fourteenth ward Assembly hall on Friday evening. It includes vocal and instrumental music, recitations, readings, refreshments and raffles. A variety of entertainment, as well as novelties, is promised.

Tomorrow and Tuesday evenings "Leda Astray" will be presented at the Salt Lake theatre by home talent. A portion of the proceeds will be donated to the Pioneer library, the remainder to be the reward of the painstaking efforts of Miss Jennie Long, who has charge of the affair and who will have a leading role. The Portland Oregonian said of her performance of Armande: "All are convinced that Miss Long's first appearance on the stage as an amateur shows her to have great talents. If she gives her attention to the drama the writer believes she has within her the capability of dramatic art, and the fire and emotion of a Charlotte Cushman. She should aim high and prepare to make the great sacrifices required of the noble women who grace the real, legitimate profession."

More than two hundred of the well known ladies of this city and Ogden received invitations to a reception given by Mrs. Silva in honor of her mother, Mrs. Southworth, and there were few or no regrets. Accordingly the drawing room of the pretty home was filled from 2 to 6 o'clock on Tuesday afternoon.

Smiles and yellow chrysanthemums were arranged with artistic effect in the hall and rooms. In the upper hall Miss Olson's orchestra was stationed and played charmingly at intervals during the afternoon.

Mrs. Almy presided at the coffee urn and refreshments were served by Miss Donnellan, Miss Earls and Miss Edna Earls.

Mrs. Silva was gown in a pretty combination of black satin, pink satin and jet.

Mrs. Southworth wore an elegant gown of black brocaded silk.

Mrs. Almy, silver gray silk, with trimmings of velvet of the same shade. Miss Donnellan, olive green silk skirt and bodice of pink crepe.

Miss Earls, light blue crepe, sleeves and trimmings of striped silk. Miss Edna Earls, pink striped silk.

On Tuesday evening Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Berton celebrated their crystal wedding by a card party at their home on Fifth East street. Their guests thoroughly enjoyed the game of "Desperation," in which Mrs. Frank Knox and Mr. C. H. Brink won first prizes, Mrs. L. A. Berton and Mr. Wright the consolation prizes, and Mr. S. J. Kenyon contented himself with the booby.

The refreshments were dainty, and nothing was lacking to make the party as enjoyable as the less formal affairs are almost certain to be.

Mr. and Mrs. Archer received many beautiful gifts of cut glass.

Among their guests were Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Pearson, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Knox, Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Adams, Mr. and Mrs. R. Pettigill, Mr. and Mrs. Egbert Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brink, Mr. and Mrs. George S. Gannett, Mrs. Alice Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Donnellan, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Bishop, Mr. and Mrs. John Luck, Mr. and Mrs. L. S. De Golyer, Mr. and Mrs. John Barker, Mr. and Mrs. J. Judson, Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Vincent, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Benton, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Earls, Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Kenyon, Dr. and Mrs. Arthur Burrows, Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Stephens, Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Fenton, Major and Mrs. Bird, Major and Mrs. Silva, Mrs. Southworth, Mr. and Mrs. Shelp, Mrs. A. Potter, Miss Pettigill, Miss Lillie Gwyn, Miss Lamson, Miss Hyatt, Miss Eberhard, Miss Burrows, Mr. E. Wright, Mr. Charles M. Hawley, Mr. Albert Taylor and Mr. A. C. Potter.

Thanksgiving Day was not celebrated anywhere in the city with more genuine pleasure to entertainers and entertained than at Rowland hall. Bishop and Mrs. Leonard, Rev. and Mrs. A. E. Hall, Miss Jennie Long and Rev. L. B. Ridgley were the guests of the teachers and pupils at dinner, which meal was prepared and served in New England style.

The chief enjoyment was derived from the rendition of Howell's farce, "The Mouse Trap." The teachers played their various roles with an abandon that charmed their audience. Miss Daggett as Mrs. Somers, Miss Howe as Mrs. Campbell, Miss Colburne as Mrs. Roberts, Miss Kinkadee as Mrs. Curwen, Miss Voseberg as Mrs. Miller, Miss Yardley as Mrs. Bemis, and Miss Dashiell as June were all excellent. The stage furnishings were tasteful.

At the close of the performance the audience dispersed, the older portion, which included some of the most prominent citizens, yielding the gymnasium to the younger, who enjoyed dancing till midnight.

More "New England refreshments" were served during the evening and the cider and popcorn balls furnished no inconsiderable part of the day's pleasure.

Mrs. and Miss McNutt, of Michigan, are the guests of Mrs. S. F. Walker.

The entertainment to be given soon for the benefit of St. Ann's orphanage promises to be one of the most sumptuous in recent years ever held in the city. The young ladies of the Catholic church will have charge of it, and their popularity as well as the claim of the cause they represent "sweet charity," will insure success.

Mrs. McElroy, mother of Mr. W. P. McElroy, has gone to Carthage, Mo., to spend the winter.

Mrs. W. P. Lynn has issued invitations for a reception on Thursday.

Mrs. and Miss Kendall visited their cousin, Marshall Brigham, last week. The ladies were en route from Honolulu to their home in Massachusetts.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Bowman gave an elegant dinner party on Thanksgiving Day.

The Sunshine club met with Miss Mae Taylor last evening. Heretofore the club has met on afternoons and the sterner sex was well represented, except on rare occasions when an evening party was given. The young ladies have relented, however, and last evening admitted a few gentlemen members. Hereafter there will be no limitations as to sex in the club.

Mrs. Vollmer has almost entirely recovered from her severe illness and expects to return from Denver this week.

About twenty young ladies of the coterie of buds will give a dancing party at Younger's during the holidays.

Miss Margaret Read and Mr. Joseph Platt were married at the Templeton Wednesday afternoon and that evening a reception was tendered them by the bride's cousins, Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Arnold, Jr., at their home, 108 Third street. Ninety-five guests, chiefly relatives of the contracting parties, were present to enjoy the wedding feast, and to present the happy couple a substantial token of their regard in the form of a bridal gift.

Both the young people are esteemed by a large circle of friends. They will be at home at 142 Third East street.

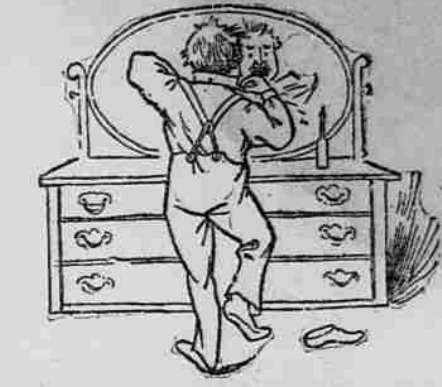

Miss Minnie Folsom entertained about twenty young people at her home on Monday evening. Cards furnished

Didn't

That collar work right this morning? Tug and pull before you got it over the button? You can save all that worry now. Try our new way—Soft Pliable Button Holes.

Paris Home Laundry,
34 South West Temple. Telephone 535.
The only Laundry in the city that finishes stiff collars with Soft Pliable Button Holes.

I'LL NEVER

Wear another blankety, blank collar like this again. It will be ANTI-SWEAT BUTTON-HOLES or nothing.

For the HOLIDAYS Trade.

WHITE & SONS CO. Market.

The Verdict of the People is that at White & Sons Co. Market everything necessary for the table may be purchased at bottom prices. Come and be convinced Before buying elsewhere. Be sure that you visit.

Fancy Groceries.

Raisins, London Layers. Raisins, Sultanas. Raisins, Muscatel. Raisins, Hendersons. Raisins, Royal Clusters. Currants. Orange, Lemon and Iron Peel. Figs, Dates, Prunes. Crystallized Fruits, Assorted. Eastern Baked Cider. All Kinds of Nuts. Cheese, Twenty Varieties.

Poultry.

ALL UTAH PRODUCT.

Turkeys. Geese. Chickens. Ducks.

Sausage.

Cambridge, Frankfurt, Vienna, Liver, Bologna.

Game.

Utah Pheasants. Pine Grouse. Eastern Pheasants. Quail. Squirrels. Oppossum.

Meats.

Beef. Pork. Mutton. Lamb. Veal.

AGENTS FOR Lipton's TEAS.

White & Sons Company,

First South street.

and treasurer. Committees on programme and music are to be appointed.

Thirty-five of those present signed the membership roll. The meetings are to be of a popular literary, scientific and social nature. The next meeting of the club will take place on Wednesday, December 12, in the same place and at the same hour. These meetings are open to the public. The club has much a good start and promises well for the future.

Cleofan.

At the Cleofan last Tuesday the members of that club listened to interesting papers on the "Fathers of Italian Art" by Mrs. Will Clawson and Miss Kate Wells.

Provo Card Club.

The first regular meeting of Provo's new card club, the Monday Night, was at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Jones last Monday evening. The club is limited to twenty-four members and will meet every two weeks. High five was the game played at the first meeting, although this may be supplanted by whist. The lady's prize, a Japanese cup and saucer, was won by Mrs. Coray, while Dr. Hanberg secured a handsome cigar case as his reward. The boobies were won by Mrs. Beck and Mr. Denhalter.

The guests present were: Mr. and Mrs. Reed Smoot, Dr. and Mrs. J. Hanberg, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Schwab, Mr. and Mrs. George Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. George Haverkamp, Mr. and Mrs. Downey, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Monahan, Dr. and Mrs. F. F. Reed, Mr. and Mrs. Josiah Beck, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Denhalter, Miss Rose Moore, and Mr. Joe Daniels.

Nineteenth Century Club.

At the residence of M. M. Kellogg on Friday evening, Nov. 30, the club gave a delightful Thanksgiving entertainment. The house was decorated with olive branches, vines, grasses and potted plants; the prominent colors were green and gold.

The following programme was much enjoyed by all:

Thanksgiving Address.....Miss Frankie French
An Original Poem.....Miss Corey
Song.....Miss Thompson
Reading.....Miss Alice Kellogg
Selection from Bitter Sweet.....Miss Rose Moore
Song.....Miss Mary French
Piano Duet.....Miss Corey
Mrs. Rose and Miss Belle Monahan. Delicious refreshments were served, consisting of cold turkey, bread and butter, lemon and cranberry jelly, doughnuts, coffee, nuts, candies and raisins. Miss Belle Monahan furnished delightful music on the piano while the refreshments were being served.

After both of these splendid programmes all turned the conversation to the club, and the different subjects assigned were earnestly discussed and enjoyed. At a late hour the guests departed feeling that another pleasant evening had been spent with the Nineteenth Century club.

F. Auerbach & Bro. are receiving daily wraps and cloaks in endless variety in styles and prices. The special sale in this department is now on. Call and inspect goods and prices before buying elsewhere.

Removal Sale of Plants.

Pallus, ferns and winter blooming roses, and carnations at Cramer's greenhouse, east of Knutsford. Store 55 East First South. Fresh cut flowers at lowest prices. Funeral designs a specialty.

Bazaar at Fourteenth Ward Hall.

All those wishing to purchase Xmas presents will find it to their advantage to visit the Fourteenth ward assembly hall next Friday evening, December 7, 1894, at 8 o'clock, at which time and place the young ladies of the Seventh, Thirteenth, Fourteenth and Fifteenth wards unite in giving a variety entertainment consisting of a short programme, refreshments, candy, boozes, bazar, where there will be for sale all kinds of dolls, dressed and undressed, the prize one being dressed by the artist, Miss Sadie Thomas; quilts, aprons, white and colored, iron holders, Xmas cakes, etc.

A fashionable novelty is a snake bracelet worn around the top of the arm, thickly incrustated with diamonds and with eyes of emeralds or rubies.

The amusement of the evening. The first prizes were won by Miss Miranda Cunningham and Mr. Needham. Miss Lida Folsom and Mr. David Tribe won the booby prizes.

Mrs. E. A. Monheim entertained some friends very pleasantly on Friday evening.

Rev. and Mrs. A. K. Hall entertained St. Mark's choir on Wednesday evening.

The young ladies of Rowland hall enjoyed a swim at the Sauterana on Monday afternoon. One of the large pools was reserved for their use. "O, such fun!" said they all, the chaplains included.

Mr. Bird was down from the Mammoth last week.

As previously stated in The Herald, Miss Cora Murray and Mr. W. P. McElroy were married on Wednesday last, and left immediately for a tour through the east. They will be at home at 135 B street after June 1.

The Ladies' Literary Club.

The Fifth Friday of the month being "President's day" the programme was somewhat varied from the usual order. The president, Mrs. Wightman, gave an instructive short talk upon "Parliamentary Law," and was followed by Mrs. Plummer, who read in a most impressive manner parts of "The Persecution of the Quakers" from Longfellow's "New England Tragedies." The remainder of the afternoon was delightfully spent in discussing a social cup of tea, served by the young ladies of the club.

Kindergarten Items.

The various kindergartens observed Thanksgiving by a remembrance of the needy. At the Darlington kindergarten, 124 S street, the children brought gifts of food which was carried by Mrs. Smith to a poor Swedish woman whose husband has been sick for seven years. The Rowland Hall kindergarten gave a dinner and pretty article of their own work to the children of the Sunbeam Sunday school. Miss Dooly's kindergarten, at Philip's chapel, gave a dinner to the poor children in that neighborhood. Miss Porter's kindergarten sent gifts to the Orphan's home both of food and pretty woven mats and cards sewed in various designs, some of them the work of children only three years old. On Saturday two weeks ago, Miss Nare's kindergarten gave a reception to the parents and friends, when they sang a German song, had marching and wand exercises and exhibited clay modeling and basket weaving. On Monday, December 3, at 4 p. m., at the First Congregational church parlors, Miss Chapin will meet the teachers of the public schools who wish to take a course of kindergarten training after school hours.

It is very important that all young ladies wishing to enter the regular training class should do so at once as no one will be received after next week. It being impossible to repeat the instruction now being given. There is already a demand for trained assistants and no others will be employed in the free kindergartens which will be opened at once as several rooms have been offered, rent free. There is still lack of funds and all wishing to contribute can send their names to Mrs. McVicker at 156 East Brigham.

First Meeting of Unity Club.

On Wednesday, November 25, at 8 p. m. the Unity club, of Salt Lake, met for the first time in Unity hall, 44 Main street. The program consisted of "An Evening with Oliver Wendell Holmes" by Mr. N. A. Sherman presented "Holmes as a man." Dr. Niles was to have presented him "as a physician," but was unavoidably absent. Mrs. Utter presented him "as a poet." Miss Rhoda Pomeroy gave a sketch of "The Professor." Rev. Stanley Hunter gave a view of him through English eyes, and Rev. David Utter summed up his characteristics and his qualifications. Miss Margaret Utter favored the club with a song. Although this was but the inaugural meeting there were fifty or sixty interested people present. After the programme Mr. Eugene Lewis was elected chairman pro tem. Mr. C. S. Kinney was unanimously elected president of the club for the ensuing year. Mrs. William C. Jennings vice-president. Miss Rhoda Pomeroy, secretary.